International Max Planck Research School on Adapting Behavior in a Fundamentally Uncertain World

6th Thesis Workshop

Scheduled Date

- 25.2. - 1.3. 2013

Location

- Castle Ringberg, venue of the Max Planck Society, 83708 Kreuth - Schloßstraße 20 - Schloss Ringberg
International Max Planck Research School on Adapting Behavior in a Fundamentally Uncertain World

Monday, February 25th

arrival
18:30 dinner

Tuesday, February 26th

8:50 welcome /remarks
9:00 – 9:45 Serhiy Kandul
   Fighting irrational self: truth aversion through delegation
9:45 – 10:30 Marian Panganiban
   To friends everything, to strangers the law - exploring group identity and weak institutions
10:30 – 11:00 coffee break
11:00 – 11:45 Andre Grimes
   Should be better, could be worse: another foray into my psycho logic
11:45 – 12:30 Ayu Okvitawanli
   Implicit vs. explicit motives and intuition vs. deliberation
12:30 – 14:00 lunch break
14:00 – 14:45 Magdalena Kaczmarek
   Mind full, or mindful? In search of the mechanism explaining the emotional seesaw phenomenon
14:45 – 15:30 Benedikt Werner
   Flexibility of automatic self-regulation mechanisms
15:30 – 16:00 coffee break
16:00 – 16:45 Olexandr Nikolaychuk
   Knowledge and control in games of incomplete information
16:45 – 17:30 Isabel Marcin
   Testing the endowment effect for default rules
17:30 – 18:30 poster session
18:30 dinner
International Max Planck Research School on Adapting Behavior in a Fundamentally Uncertain World

Wednesday, February 27th

9:00 – 9:45  Laura Lyhs
Judicial errors and deterrence

9:45 – 10:30  Pascal Langenbach
Voice effects towards an impartial decision maker: experimental evidence on procedures

10:30 – 11:00  coffee break

11:00 – 11:45  Lilia Zhurakhovska
White lies, black lies and guilt

11:45 – 12:30  Marco Kleine
Do agents live up to the principals’ expectations when principals know their abilities? – A real effort gift exchange experiment on performance and stress

12:30 – 14:00  lunch break

14:00 – 14:45  Gulnaz Anjum
Altruistic versus antisocial punishment: When does honor or justice drive our actions towards wrongdoings?

14:45 – 15:30  Martin Rosenauer
(Numerical) Cognition and the real world

15:30 – 16:00  coffee break

16:00 – 16:45  Pantelis Analytis
The choice-experience feedback loop: judging and choosing with small and biased samples

16:45 – 17:30  Stojan Davidovic
Analogies for a safer financial world

17:30 – 18:30  poster session

18:30  dinner
February 22, 2013

International Max Planck Research School on Adapting Behavior in a Fundamentally Uncertain World

Thursday, February 28th

9:00 – 9:45
Jolene Tan
Forgiveness: A Fast & Frugal Tree Process Account

9:45 – 10:30
Jana Jarecki
The class conditional independence assumption as a heuristic for classification learning

10:30 – 11:00
coffee break

11:00 – 11:45
Daniel Barkoczi
Ecological rationality of social heuristics

11:45 – 12:30
Carlos Kurschilgen
tba

12:30 – 14:00
lunch break

14:00 – 14:45
Monika Ziolkowska
Length of tenure, dismissal rules and executive directors' 'long-term thinking'

14:45 – 15:30
Hanjo Hamann
Evidence-based jurisprudence. prospects and pitfalls of empirical research in law

15:30 – 16:00
coffee break

16:00 – 17:00
Poster session

17:00 – 17:15
wrap up

18:30
dinner

Friday, March 1st

departures